

Criteria and Procedures for Nomination and Appointment of GC Directors

1. Objective

The Board of Directors has approved the criteria and procedures for nomination and appointment of GC directors to ensure that the nomination and appointment process of GC directors is conducted transparently and in accordance with clearly well-established criteria, laws and any other relevant regulations, and GC good corporate governance principles. To achieve this, the Board of Directors has appointed and assigned the Nomination and Remuneration Committee to perform its duties of nominating and selecting directors and sub-committees. By doing this, the Nomination and Remuneration Committee must establish the transparent criteria or procedure for nomination and selection before proposing the list of candidates to the Board of Directors and/or the Shareholders' meeting for approval of appointment as described in the Nomination and Remuneration Committee Charter. This ensures that the selected candidates are able to perform the duties as GC directors effectively and in accordance with GC's business strategies.

2. Criteria for Nomination and Appointment of GC Directors

The Nomination and Remuneration Committee shall nominate and select candidates who must be fully qualified and have no prohibited characteristics under laws and any other relevant regulations, embrace moral value and have responsibility, and are able to perform directors' duties with due care (Duty of Care) and loyalty (Duty of Loyalty) for the position of GC directors and sub-committees according to the criteria for nomination and appointment of GC directors before proposing the list of candidates to the Board of Directors and/or the Shareholders' meeting for approval of appointment as detailed below.

- Consent from the nominated person to be appointed as GC Director.

2.3 Nomination and appointment of the sub-committees are based on the following criteria.

- Knowledge, expertise, and specialized experience according to the Board Skills Matrix, which contribute to sub-committees' performance of duties.
- Sub-committees' charters, namely the Audit Committee Charter, the Risk Management Committee Charter, the Corporate Governance and Sustainability Committee Charter, and the Nomination and Remuneration Committee Charter.
- Sub-committees' qualifications as prescribed by laws, any other relevant regulations and notifications of the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) and the Stock Exchange of Thailand (SET) as well as GC's Articles of Association, and Corporate Governance and Business Code of Conduct Handbook.

- In the case of appointment of the former sub-committees, it shall consider the annual performance as sub-committees during the past year, the performance in providing advice and opinions which are beneficial for GC's business operations, and the sufficient dedication to sub-committees' duties of each director in addition to the above-mentioned criteria.

3. Procedures for Nomination and Appointment of GC Directors

3.1 Appointment of directors in replacement of those who are due to retire by rotation

When the Company receives the list of candidates for director position from minority shareholders, majority shareholders, or the Nomination and Remuneration Committee as specified in No. 2.1, it shall review and confirm the qualifications, knowledge, skills, and experience of the proposed candidates to be appointed as GC directors. The company shall also request for consent from the candidates for the nomination and selection process before proposing to the Nomination and Remuneration Committee's meeting for consideration, review, and comment.

After consideration, review and comment by the Nomination and Remuneration Committee, the Nomination and Remuneration Committee has a duty to propose the Board of Directors for approval of the list of candidates as qualified in No. 2.1 before proposing to the Shareholders' meeting for approval of appointment. The appointment requires a majority vote of shareholders who attend and vote, and the shareholders shall cast the votes to elect a director on individual basis to be in accordance with the good corporate governance principles.

3.2 Appointment of directors in replacement of those whose position has become vacant due to a reason other than the retirement by rotation

When the Company receives the list of candidates for director position from majority shareholders, or the Nomination and Remuneration Committee as specified in No. 2.2, it shall review and confirm the qualifications, knowledge, skills, and experience of the proposed candidates to be appointed as GC directors. The company shall also request for consent from the candidates for the nomination and selection process before proposing to the Nomination and Remuneration Committee's meeting for consideration, review, and comment.

After consideration, review and comment by the Nomination and Remuneration Committee, the Nomination and Remuneration Committee has a duty to propose the list of candidates as qualified in No. 2.2 to the Board of Directors for appointment as a director to fill the vacant position. Such newly appointed director shall hold the office only for the remaining term of the former director whom he/she replaces. The appointment requires a vote of not less than three-fourths (3/4) of the number of the remaining directors.

If the remaining term of the former director is less than two months, it is required to propose the candidates to be appointed as a director to the Shareholders' Meeting for approval.

3.3 Appointment of the sub-committees

The Company shall review and confirm the qualifications, knowledge, skills, and experience of the qualified directors to be appointed as sub-committees as specified in No. 2.3 before proposing to the Nomination and Remuneration Committee's meeting for consideration, review, and comment.

After consideration, review and comment by the Nomination and Remuneration Committee, the Nomination and Remuneration Committee has a duty to propose the list of directors as qualified in No. 2.3 to the Board of Directors for appointment as sub-committees. The term of office of sub-committee members is three years. In addition, the appointment requires a majority vote of directors who attend the meeting.

Additionally, the sub-committees who are due to retire by rotation may be reappointed by the Board of Directors' Meeting. In the case where the position of sub-committees becomes vacant due to a reason other than the retirement by rotation, the newly appointed sub-committees shall hold the office only for the remaining term of the former sub-committees whom he/she replaces.
